21st October 2022

Dear parents,

Thank you to everyone who contributed to Hello Yellow we are still collecting so will let you know how much we have raised when we come back after half term. Children enjoyed activities for Halloween well done everyone, the children looked great! Children had special visitors in school on Wednesday to teach them all about Diwali, a Hindu festival which is celebrated on the 25th October, during our half term. School trips have now been confirmed, please make payments towards the trip via school gateway. We have 54 children who have achieved 100% attendance this half term, congratulations, thank you very much to parents. Everyone will be receiving attendance letters today, please let school know at the office if we can support you in any way. We hope you all have a good break.

Notices

Please respect our community and avoid blocking the entrance to garages on Cotterill and Brakendale when dropping off and picking children up from school.

Breakfast Club

Breakfast club is now £1 per session. Please book a place on gateway

BIRTHDAYS: Matilda, Alexis, Freddie, George, Laura, Esme & Isaac. We hope you all have a wonderful day.

Homework

READING: please ensure that you read with your child each night. Children can also bring in to school their own books so they are encouraged to read for pleasure.

Times Tables

Don't forget TT Rockstars!

Learning to love Learning.

Children will have a research Geography project to complete for holiday homework.

We hope you have a great time. I am so impressed with the work that you have brought into school.
