

RAISE

The Holy Spirit curriculum has been designed to develop and nurture our children to let their light shine and be a guiding light for others.

With Christ we learn to: Love - Believe - Achieve & Thrive

Let Your Light Shine

And be a guiding light for others

Resilient Pupils

Aspirational Citizens

Enthusiastic Learners

Independent Learners

Matthew 5:16

Spiritual Individuals

Resilient Pupils: who are courageous, they persevere, despite challenges and setbacks. They learn from mistakes and are proud when they achieve what they thought, at first was impossible.

Aspirational Citizens: who grow to be ambitious and set their goals to achieve their dream and achieve success. They use their gifts and talents to develop their passion for learning. They choose healthy lifestyles, physically and mentally and know of the possibilities and opportunities open to them.

Independent Learners: who enjoy taking responsibility for their own learning, they are inquisitive and self-motivated. They have the knowledge and skills to achieve their full potential.

Spiritual Individuals: who believe in themselves and have compassion for others, they are thoughtful and know how to keep themselves healthy through a positive mind-set. They are guided by the Catholic virtues to become the best they can be, academically, socially and emotionally. They understand the teachings of Jesus and the Gospels. They believe in equality and making a difference in the wider world.

Enthusiastic Learners: who are curious to know more and ask questions about what they are learning. They go above and beyond to achieve high standards and have a keen interest to grow. They understand that success is a result of hard work and effort. They have ambition and are excited about their future and inspire others.

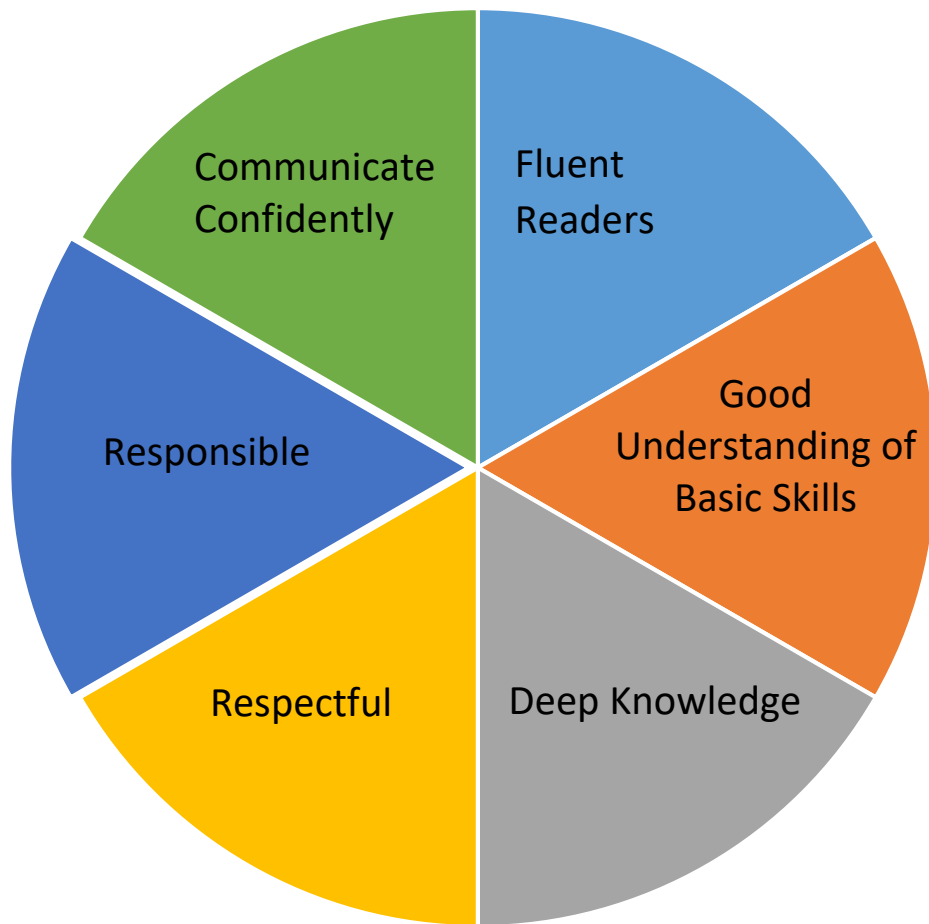

Resilient Pupils at The Holy Spirit

- Are determined to do well and put in the maximum effort in order to succeed.
- Are confident and believe in themselves, they have the ability not to give up when things go wrong.
- They embrace challenge and are push themselves outside of their comfort zone socially and academically.
- They are creative thinkers and adapt to change and persevere to solve problems.
- Are self- aware, they build on their strengths and build good relationships.
- Have a positive outlook on life and have a sense of humour. They understand the importance of having a healthy -mind-set and have an “I Can” attitude towards their learning.

Aspirational Citizens at The Holy Spirit

- Are ambitious, and set challenging targets. They focus on working hard to reach their dreams.
- Have high expectations of themselves and take pride in all that they do. They understand that success is achieved by making mistakes.
- They belong to the Holy Spirit family community, therefore work together to help everyone achieve their full potential. Our children celebrate their own success and the success of others.
- Put their happiness and wellbeing first by having a positive mind-set and look forward to their future with confidence beyond The Holy Spirit.
- They have a deep desire and passion to achieve their very best, to widen their possibilities and build on their strengths, gifts and talents.
- Believe that nothing is impossible and they are capable of great things. They look up to inspirational people in their field and follow their examples, being positive role models for others.

Independent Learners at The Holy Spirit

- Are fluent readers and enjoy reading for pleasure. They read to learn and have an expanding rich vocabulary.
- They know that importance of practicing basic skills so they can calculate, problem solve, reason and write with confidence.
- Gain a deep knowledge and understanding of the curriculum so that new knowledge can be built on prior learning and that learning never stops.
- Are respectful of their environment and a good understanding of other people who share different beliefs and cultures.
- Are responsible for their learning and are self-motivated to succeed. They fully understand British Values and take responsibility for their own actions.
- Are great communicators in all situations and speak with confidence. They have the ability to share their view and have their voices in a positive manner.

Spiritual Individuals at The Holy Spirit

- Know they are unique and made in God's image, and live by the examples that Jesus taught us, using the Gospels to inform them of their thoughts and actions.
- Are committed and guided by the Catholic virtues of Hope, Faith and Love, Justice, self-control, courage and wisdom, so they can be the best they can be.
- Are mindful how they treat others and are kind and patient. They reflect, meditate and pray for inner peace to free them from anxiety.
- Are aware of their environment and the wider world, they believe they can make a difference and stand up for what is right.
- Have empathy and compassion for those less fortunate than themselves.
- Are respectful and tolerant of others who are of different faiths and beliefs.

Enthusiastic Learners at The Holy Spirit

- Understand fully that success is the result of hard work and effort. They are proud of themselves when they succeed.
- They are curious and ask big questions to further their understanding.
- Because they experience success and achievements they can see themselves improve socially, academically and physically.
- They have developed a love for reading and read to learn. They are keen to do extra work because they enjoy learning and they are excited about future possibilities.
- They are positive contributors to lessons and interact with others. They are able to discuss issues and debate.
- They work well with their peers and act as positive role models. They enjoy the success of others.