In School this week:

- Welcome back to school and welcome to the summer term! I hope you all had an enjoyable Easter break. The children have settled back into school routines.
- Year six have started their transition work and listened to presentations from our visitors this week about the dangers of alcohol, and tobacco, including the dangers of e-cigarettes; our year 6 pupils asked lots of questions and they were very mature listening to all the facts.
- Year 5 took part in Fit For Life looking at the impact of sugar and sugar quantities in certain foods.
- We welcome back Matthew from KDE sports who has just started football club on Thursdays and Matthew will be joining us for PE later in the year.
- Change of name. We congratulate Ms Dineley this week welcome Ms Weston back on Monday!

If you know of friends, family or neighbours who are looking for a school place in September or throughout the academic year, please let them know about our wonderful school. We are a small friendly school. Pupils do not need to be Catholic to be with us, as you know we are fully inclusive. Thank you

- Five ways to wellbeing, and feeling good - look after your mental health.*
