In School this week:

- The Catholic Schools Inspection (CSI) took place on the 5th June the report has now been published on the Diocese of Shrewsbury website. Congratulations to all staff, parents, families and pupils. The report will be shared with you and will also be available on our school website.
- Our Head boy and Head girl went to the Widnes Stadium this week to receive our 5 ways to wellbeing award. Thank you everyone for your support.
- Well done to our children who completed their assessments this week, we are all very proud of you.

Children's University Graduation photographs will be in school soon for parents to purchase. It was such a lovely experience for children and parents.

*Don't forget this weekend to look after your mental health
